I joined Tastefully Simple for the fun of it – and for myself. I needed to be more than a mother and a wife, and something that could be a great release for my creative spirit and high energy. I discovered delicious products that others get to taste in a fun, low-key setting while I make money sharing it with them. I was SOLD! It's food. It's consumable. Everyone eats – and everyone will want more! Who wouldn't want a piece of that?”
